Teacher’s Guide

Breaking Through

Overview
Background Countless migrant workers, mostly from Mexico and the Philippines, moved to California during the early and mid-twentieth century. To enter legally, immigrants had to prove that they had jobs, schools, or family members waiting for them in the United States. Those who could not prove this had to enter the U.S. illegally. Illegal immigrants faced deportation, separation from their families, and other hardships. They moved often to find work and to avoid immigration officials. Often, they had to resign themselves to low pay, back-breaking work, and less than adequate housing.

Book Summary Breaking Through is an autobiographical account of Francisco Jiménez’s life as a young migrant worker during the 1950s and 1960s. The Jiménez family immigrated to the United States from Mexico illegally and became migrant workers in California, where they lived in poverty. Jiménez draws upon his experiences as an illegal immigrant, a migrant worker, and a determined student to tell the story of his search for a brighter future.

About the Author
Francisco Jiménez was born on June 29, 1943, in San Pedro, Tlaquepaque, Mexico. The Jiménez family immigrated to the United States illegally in 1947, and Jiménez began working in the fields at the age of six. He attended school intermittently and had difficulty learning English. He and his family moved constantly in search of work, living in small tents and shacks. The family finally settled in one place when Roberto, Jiménez’s older brother, found a steady job as a school janitor. They became legal citizens shortly afterward.

Jiménez went on to receive his bachelor’s degree in Spanish from Santa Clara University, his master’s degree from Columbia University, and a doctorate degree from Harvard University. His other works include La Mariposa and The Circuit: Stories from the Life of a Migrant Child.

THE EXCHANGE QUESTION
True or False? The most difficult choices have the best results.
Reading the Book

There are several options for reading Breaking Through. They include:

- Whole Class Assign sections of the book and discussion dates using the planner on Student Journal, page 1. After students read a section and respond to the corresponding Student Journal pages, have a class discussion. At the end of the book, the class meets for The Exchange.

- Small Groups Read the book Introduction with the group. Group members then read an agreed-upon number of pages, complete the corresponding Student Journal pages, and meet to discuss. When they finish the book, they meet again for The Exchange. Use the planner on Student Journal, page 1 to establish meeting times.

- Independently Students read the book on their own and then meet as a group for The Exchange. Use the planner on Student Journal, page 1 to establish the meeting time.

- Guided Reading Have students read Student Journal, page 2 and monitor their discussion of the What If? scenario. Read aloud the book Introduction to give students background on the book. As students read, use the Before You Move On questions to guide comprehension. Use the Look Ahead to set a focus for reading the next set of pages. At the end of each section, assign the appropriate Student Journal pages. Discuss the pages before starting the next section. Establish a date for The Exchange and record it on the planner.

Getting Started

Have students read What If? on Student Journal, page 2 and discuss the scenario. Encourage students to describe the similarities and differences between the scenario and their lives and imagine how the situation would affect them.

- Have students write their responses to the three questions below the scenario and compare answers with a partner or the group.

- Have students discuss how the situation might relate to The Exchange question and then write a brief summary of their discussion in the Student Journal.
Introduction

Have students read the book Introduction. Check their comprehension with the three follow-up questions on Student Journal, page 3.

Introduction

Read the Introduction on pages 9–11 in Breaking Through. The Introduction will help you understand key concepts in the book. Knowing them will help you discuss and write about the book.

The Introduction includes information about:
- the background and accomplishments of the author, Francisco Jiménez
- the challenges of being an illegal immigrant and migrant farm worker
- the laws that affect immigrants in the United States

After you read the Introduction, answer these questions to check your understanding.

1. Why was it difficult for migrant farm workers in California to escape poverty?

   Work was scarce when it was not growing season. Workers had to move often to find work, and the pay was very low. Many immigrants did not have the right skills or the education required to get better jobs in the United States.

2. Why do so many immigrants enter the United States illegally?

   Many immigrants do not have the money to pay for visas. They also may not meet the requirements to earn visas. Because they need the jobs the United States can provide, they risk deportation and enter illegally.

3. What dreams came true for Francisco Jiménez?

   Jiménez attended college and became a university professor and a writer.

Introduction: Key Concepts

Have students study the first Key Concept with the help of the graphic organizer on Student Journal, page 4. After studying the example, they should create similar graphic organizers to focus their understanding of the remaining Key Concepts.

Word Map

Study the Word Map for immigrant. Write a sentence using the word immigrant.

- Synonym: foreigner
- Antonym: native
- Example: Francisco Jiménez
- Example: Native Americans

On a separate sheet of paper, create a Word Map for each Key Concept word. Use a thesaurus to find antonyms and synonyms. Write two sentences for each word—one using the Key Concept word and one using either the antonym or synonym.
Page 33

1. Summarize Reread pages 25–28. What did the family have to do to enter the United States legally?

   They had to show birth documents, pass a medical exam, and obtain visas.

2. Conclusions Reread pages 31–32. Why did Panchito cry when he saw the boy with his father?

   Panchito was sad to leave his family, and he wished his life could have been happier. He had to grow up and leave his parents much too quickly.

1. Author’s Style Reread page 34. How did the author show his feelings about missing his family?

   He described the details, like the smells, sounds, and routines of his home in the morning.

2. Conclusions Reread pages 40–41. Why was it so difficult for Panchito and Roberto to eat in the restaurant?

   Panchito and Roberto had never been to a restaurant. They did not understand how to behave. They also had no knowledge of the differences in steak or how to choose from a menu.

Page 58

1. Main Idea and Details List 3 details to support this main idea: Panchito took risks to be like other kids his age.

   - Panchito sang an Elvis song in class, even though he was nervous. He went to the Vets dances and learned how to dance with girls. He called a girl on the phone.

2. Inference Reread pages 55–57. Why do you think Peggy stopped talking to Panchito?

   Peggy’s parents were prejudiced. They did not want her to date Panchito because he was Mexican. Panchito was also nervous to be alone with Peggy. This frustrated Peggy.

Respond to Pages 15–58

1. Personal Response Panchito took a risk when he sang an Elvis song in front of the class to make friends and fit in. Have you ever taken a risk to fit in? How did it make you feel?

2. Inference What was ironic about Panchito reciting the Preamble to the Declaration of Independence when immigration officials came to take him from school? Use the word deport in your response.

   When the U.S. immigration officials came to deport him, Panchito was reciting the basic human rights that people have in the United States. Ironically, Panchito did not have the rights he was learning about.

3. Conclusions Even without supervision, Panchito and Roberto obeyed the rules of their parents. They did their chores and kept up with their responsibilities. What can you conclude about Panchito and Roberto?

   They were very responsible and mature. They faced adult responsibilities and took them seriously because their family needed their help.

4. Generate Questions Write a question about this section for someone else reading this book. Exchange questions with them. Do you agree with their answer?

5. Author’s Point of View It was very difficult for Panchito to fit in at school and make friends. List some of his obstacles on the left side of the T Chart and what he did to overcome them on the right side.

```markdown
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Obstacle</th>
<th>Solution</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>few opportunities to interact with people outside of school</td>
<td>learned how to dance and went to dances</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>struggled with English slang and popular culture</td>
<td>listened to popular music and how the kids around him talked</td>

<td>used a neighbor’s phone to call a girl</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>wanted to have a social connection with his classmates</td>
<td>sang an Elvis song in class to fit in</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Why did Panchito try so hard to overcome these obstacles when he had so many other big problems to worry about? What else could he have done to solve his problems?

Panchito wanted to fit in and be like other kids his age. He had to worry about serious issues, like poverty, work, and taking care of his family. School and social activities became his only connection to childhood. These things became important to his happiness.

1. Personal Response Panchito was excited and nervous about the first day of high school. He wanted to make sure he looked his best. When have you felt both excited and nervous about an event? What did you do?

2. Cause and Effect How did reading about the Spanish explorer Hernan Cortés and his accomplishments affect Panchito? Why did it affect him this way? Use the word accomplish in your answer.

5. Main Idea and Details Panchito had few role models and many obstacles that made school difficult for him. List details that support the main idea below.

   Main Idea Diagram

   Main Idea: Even with hard work, school was difficult for Panchito

   Details:

   - He worked long hours and missed school. He had a hard time keeping up with his academic work.
   - He struggled in his English class because Spanish was his first language.
   - He saw few examples of successful people who shared his ethnicity.
   - His father was often discouraging about school.
   - His grade was affected when he could not afford another pair of gym shoes.

   What might have helped Panchito to succeed in school? Give two examples.

   School might have been easier for Panchito if he had more encouragement or help from his father. Also, he might have had more success if he had someone outside of school to help him with his English.
Page 114

1. Paraphrase Reread page 104. What did Papá mean when he said, “this life is for the dogs”?

   Panchito enjoyed spending time with Roberto. He was jealous of the attention Roberto was giving his date.

Page 147

1. Inference Reread page 137. Why did Panchito feel excited and sad about going to college?
   Panchito desperately wanted to go to college and continue learning, but he did not want to leave his family. He knew they still needed him.

2. Cause and Effect Reread pages 143–144. Papá believed that rich people rule America. What caused him to think this?
   Papá said that he had seen it with his own eyes. He and other poor people were powerless, while wealthier people lived comfortably.

2. Summary Which incidents made Panchito aware of discrimination? Why did he have difficulty understanding why people discriminate against immigrants? Use the word immigrant in your response.

3. Compare and Contrast When the Spanish Club tried to plan a holiday event, how did Panchito see things differently from his classmates? How did his own family benefit from his idea for an event?
   Most of the students had fun during the holidays, so they wanted a party. Panchito had known hunger during the holidays, so he wanted to do something for others. In the end, his family was one of those who received a food drive basket.

Conclusions Reread page 202. What was the real reason Papá tried to avoid going to the graduation ceremony?
Papá was sad to see Panchito graduate because it meant he would be leaving home. He wanted the family to stay together. Also, it reminded him of a life he would never have.

Opinion Panchito struggled to attend college. List the events and the outcome. Use the Goal and Outcome Chart to answer the question.
Could Panchito have gone to college without the help he received? Why or why not?
Exchange Discussion

THE QUESTION

True or false? The most difficult choices have the best results.

- Panchito struggled to do well in school as he worked to help his family survive. How did this influence his decision about what to do with his life after graduation?

  Panchito learned from his struggles and hard work that he wanted a better life for himself. He did not want to spend his life working so hard, only to still be poor. He enjoyed school and liked the idea of becoming a teacher, even though he worried that his choice would hurt his family.

- Panchito had to make difficult choices in order to succeed. What tough choices have you made to get something you wanted?

- Several people helped Panchito go to college and make his dream of a better life come true. Who has made a positive difference in your life? How?

Evaluate the Discussion

Use the reproducible master from page 10 of this Teacher's Guide to evaluate The Exchange discussion. The form may also be used by students for group assessment.

Assessment Part II

Guidelines for Short Essay

Have students write a short essay in response to one of the setting prompts below. Use the Scoring Guide to assist in your evaluation of their essays.

A. What and/or who were the important influences in Panchito’s life? How did they affect the decisions Panchito made? In what way can you relate to Panchito’s life?

Responses should include influences such as family, personal values, religion, school mentors, friends, and dreams. Panchito always chose to work hard. He knew his family needed him to. He studied as much as possible because he wanted to succeed. Panchito got involved socially at school. His peers encouraged him. Panchito pursued college; his teachers and counselors helped him navigate the college system.

B. Francisco Jiménez chose Breaking Through as the title for this story. What does the title mean? How does it relate to the obstacles he faced? What other title could Jiménez have chosen? Why?

Responses should focus on how Jiménez “broke through” the obstacles he faced as an immigrant. These included poverty, culture differences, and low expectations. Despite the many obstacles he faced, Jiménez overcame them with hope, determination, and hard work.
